

OEM - Kit for the IR: IRADK1.0 frequency inverter with IRAMS module

➤ Customer:

International Rectifier, El Segundo, CA

➤ Product description:

IRADK1.0 is the RISC-controlled miniature frequency inverter designed to demonstrate the features of IRAMS family of intelligent power modules, promoted by International Rectifier. The hardware and software features of the IRADK are compatible with the needs and norms of the appliance market. The PC-based GUI is designed to bring the IRAMS features to the potential IR-customer closer look.

➤ involvement:

Concept and design of all the aspects of the product (hardware, software, mechanics, marketing issues). IRADK 1.0 sample units are produced by localCompany (250 units up to..date), shipped to IR and made available through the "Digikey" sales network.